

Human Resources Handbook (Test Document).

Section 1: Company Policies.

Equal Employment Opportunity is guaranteed to all employees regardless of race, gender, or age. The company enforces a strict anti-harassment policy across all departments. Employees must adhere to the professional code of conduct at all times.

Section 2: Leave & Attendance.

Annual leave entitlement is twenty days per calendar year. Sick leave requires a medical certificate if absence exceeds three days. Attendance must be logged daily in the HR portal.

Section 3: Compensation & Benefits.

Salaries are processed on the thirtieth of each month. Health insurance covers medical, dental, and vision expenses. Retirement contributions equal five percent of base salary.

Section 4: Performance Management.

Performance appraisals are conducted annually in December. Promotions depend on performance ratings and organizational needs. Training sessions are encouraged at least twice per year.

Section 5: Employee Relations.

Grievances can be raised through the HR helpdesk. Disciplinary action follows a progressive policy of warnings. Exit process includes clearance, settlement, and interview.

Section 6: Safety & Compliance.

Workplace safety protocols must be followed at all times. Compliance with labor laws is mandatory. Confidential information must not be shared externally.

Section 7: Guidelines.

Dress code is business casual Monday to Thursday. Casual attire is permitted on Fridays. Remote work is allowed up to two days per week. Travel expenses are reimbursed within fifteen days of submission.

Section 8: Recruitment & Onboarding.

Job postings must be approved by HR. Interviews follow structured competency-based formats. New hires undergo a mandatory onboarding program.

Section 9: Training & Development.

Employees are encouraged to attend skill development workshops. HR provides access to online learning platforms. Leadership training is offered to high-potential employees.

Section 10: Termination & Exit.

Voluntary resignations require thirty days' notice. Involuntary terminations follow progressive discipline. Exit interviews are conducted to gather feedback.
